

The specimen stamp is a critical component of the setup.

Here we present one of the versions we use. The membrane applied is Costar Transwell 3450-Clear from Corning Inc. The holes were cut with laser. A 5mm-diameter circular cover glass was used to cover the perfusion solution in the central unit. For further plans and advice, please contact us.

